NAD TO MEET IN HOUSTON

The 1976 National Association of the Deaf Convention will be held in Houston, Texas, July 4-10. An all-day tour to San Antonio, the Alamo and LBJ Ranch is planned for July 4. Business meetings will commence on July 5, and the convention will close on the evening of July 10, with the Grand Ball.

Participants can purchase a combination ticket which includes the registration fee, program book, reception, Western Day, NAD Rally Night, Hawaiian Luau, Miss Deaf America Pageant and Grand Ball -- a $64 value -- for $53. If the combination is purchased before May 1, a further discount is available. For registration forms and additional convention information, contact Nancy Connors at the NAD headquarters.

A GRAND FINALE

Students from the music interpreting class of the Evening Sign Language Programs will present a performance as their final exam on Thursday, May 13, at 8 p.m. in the Auditorium. Tickets can be purchased through the Sign Language Programs at $1.75 for general admission and $1.50 for students and children.

NEW PROGRAM SUPERVISORS

Three new people will be assuming the positions of program supervisors in the Preschool, Primary and Middle School departments of Kendall School.

Margery Sommers, who comes to Gallaudet from the John Tracy Clinic in Los Angeles where she is supervisor of the Teacher Preparation Program, will be in the Preschool department.

The supervisor for the Primary area will be Debbie Sinclair who is presently supervising teacher of preschool and primary education at the Phoenix Day School for the Deaf.

John Spellman, an alum of Gallaudet who is currently with the Rhode Island School for the Deaf as Director of Community Services for the Deaf, will be the new supervisor for the Middle School.

STOUT RE-ELECTED

Claude Stout has been re-elected to a second term as SBG president. Steve Weiner, his running-mate, will serve as vice-president. Following a run-off election, Doug Momotiuk was elected to the position of business manager. Doug had tied with Bobby Laniyan in the competition for business manager.

STUDENTS TO BE HONORED

Gallaudet students who have made significant service contributions or academic achievements will be honored at an Awards Night ceremony on April 29, at 6:30 p.m. in the Auditorium. The annual event is sponsored by Committee C.

Arrangements have been made for a special dinner to be served in the cafeteria for those persons who would like to eat with the students prior to the presentations. A reception will follow the program.

ON THE ROAD

The production of "Free to Be You and Me," which was presented in the Auditorium late last month toured eastern and central Pennsylvania two weeks ago. The company -- Barbara Goettsch, Gina Mullen, Ward Pettis, Bobbie Pollard, Bill Pugin, skee, and Hank Young -- performed at Moravian College, Bucknell University and Gettysburg College. The group also conducted workshops in deafness and sign language at each of the schools.
